REVIEW OF MARKETS FINANCIAL AND COMMBRCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange, Bonds, Grain, Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

New York, Jan. 19.—The stock market was strong and active all day, except for a realizing movement around delivery hour, when prices receded about a point in many stocks, but toward the close picked up sharply, and the close hig was strong, with material net gains in all the leading shares. The volume of business was above the million share mark, and London, after being a seiler for a long time to-day, reversed her position and purchased about 35,000 shares. Following the example of the Imperial Bank of Germany, the Bank of Eagland reduced lits rate of discount. A confluance of easy money conditions here was another factor in the confidence shown to-day. The Grangers made new high record prices for the current movement, and the average price of active shares was also the highest. The strong London tone encouraged a high opening here, and there was a large accumulation of buying orders over night, the short interests were compelled to retreat in many stocks. There was heavy realizing at the advance, but the stocks soid were well taken and the market broadened out.

The greatest activity and strength was shown by Manhattan, Burlington, St. Paul, Sugar, Atchison preferred. Reading first preferred and Northern and Unlon Pacifies. The advance in Suzar was credited to a rounding up of the shorts. The advance in Burlington seemed to be accepted as meaning that something was under consideration in regard to a re-funding scheme, although negotiations under way were said to apply to the issue of only a small amount of bonds. The interests concerned were nen-committal, and there was no definite development one way or the other. The advance in Manhattan was accompanied by a story connecting the name of a large outside interest as likely to take part in the financing of electrically equipping the road, but the denials of this were empacted as hitherto.

The increase in the Omaha dividend of 1½ rer cent, seemed to have been discounted, as the stock was inactive after the announcement, and then dipped in sympathy with the rea Lake Eric and Western stocks advanced on covering by the short interests. The preferred advanced 5½ and the common 2% on the dissemination of rumors of a deal with the C., C. and St. Louis.

The rumor of the prospective retirement of the Minneapolis, St. Louis first preferred stock resulted in an advance in the second preferred stock of over three points. There was an advance in most of the Gould properties, some of which have been inactive of late, Manhattan rising 4% and Missourl Pacific 2 points.

around with the lay strong.

The Cotton Markets.

New York, Jan. 19.—The cotton marked again took a higher level and showed we again took as higher level and showed well sustained, if not greater activity. The leading bullish impulses were the strong cables and smaller receipts, it was expected that the market would open higher than it did, but some of the smaller local longs took advantage of the strong situation to liquidate, and the selling by this class, added to some outside disposition to realize, checked the advance on the opening call at 4%6 points. Later, business increased the advance to 7%9 points, the higher extreme being confined to December contracts. August came within one point of selling at six cents, but at 5.99 there was a selling movement that turned the market a little, a reaction of 2%4 points followed. Without quotable advance the market for spot cotton showed positive firmness in the local market and also in the Isading markets of the cotton belt which were from firm at unchanged quotations to 4sc. higher. There was no let up in the reports from dittens. New Orleans and other Southalso in the leading to be twhich were from firm at unchanged quotations to be, higher. There was no let up in the reports from American spinners and prospective conditions. New Orleans and other Southern markets sent in buying orders. In the afternoon the market was less energetic. Cautious local traders were inclined to take profits, and outside support had a subsiding tendency with the market finally steady at a net gain of 45.7 points.

The South's Conspicuous Part in

Baltimore, Jan. 19, 1899 .- The impetus the marvelous figures of exports for meetings of commercial bodies at Richmond, Norfolk, Mobile, Galveston and a review of the past year have also been noted for the spirit of enterprise been noted for the spirit of enterprise and hopefulness pervading that section. The shipment from Galvesten of hundreds of thousands of bushels of corn raised in that State, the expanding exports of Mobile, marked by an increase in the last four months of 1898 or more than $4,000,000, nearly $300,000 of which represents trade with Cuba; the plan to establish steamship communication between Norfolk, Va., and South American ports, the increasing importance of Pensacola and the general activity at all ports from the Chesapeake to the Rio Grande, are evidences of the progressive spirit pervading the South. For many years food products and raw material, such as cotton, naval stores, iron and coal will dominate the Southern exports, but aiready manufactures in the shape of lumber, machinery and cotton goods have begun to assume importance, and the steady increase in the number of smaller industries noted weekly by the Manufacturers' Record, side by side with the great steel plants, their kindred undertakings, ship-building, &c., are measures of the preparations of a larger share by the South in the experts of finished products which have been nurtured by representatives of the Government in England, Germany, Russia and the far East. Typical of the preparations for increased prosperity are the announcements that to the Standard Cotton Mill at Rock Hill, S. C., is to be added to plant with 7,000 spindles; the proposed installation of 1,300 spindles and 56 additional booms to the Caraleigh Mills of Raleigh, N. C.; the expenditure of $40,000 for an addition to the Modena Cotton Mills at Gastonia, and the addition of 30 spindles for the Louise Mills of Chariotte, and of 3,500 additional spindles to the Cumberland Mills, of Cumberland, N. C., who said: "The condition of the cotton business is to be gauged not so much by the number of old mills that are being re-equipped with the newest and finest machinery. It is a fact that the mills of the South, as a general thing, have the finest machinery that is made. A better grade The shipment from Galveston of hun-
